Isaiah 28:7: Can affect one's judgment to make right decisions

Some reasons:

1. Useless expense
2. Loss of time
3. Danger of bad company/cause compromises
4. Danger of contracting irregular habits and of being induced to lead a life style other than what God directs.

Galatians 5:19-21: Those who do this will not inherit the kingdom of God

Proverbs 31:4-6: It is not wise for kings or leaders as it can affect their judgment when it comes to the law and governing. It can cause them to pervert justice.

Isaiah 5:11: Woe to those who must drink morning to night. "Woe" is an expression of grief or distress. They only care for their own pleasures and no concern for the Lord.

Luke 21:34: Warning (as Jesus' disciples) not to get caught up or indulge in festivities of this life and thus forget about the life to come. We are to be ready at all times! See also Romans 13:13
